“ I am so sorry for the love of your wife and mother, Don and family. Memorial Day is bittersweet for most of us when we have lived for a long time with the loss of our loved ones. Peace does come, but the loss still hurts, even after years and years. Don, thanks for reminding me today about how we all share in this. Your wife so closely buried next to my Mom, Dad, Brother and Grandparents...lives interconnected by a community of people who had some major things in common. When we lose our loved ones? Some times so lonely and beyond comfort in times of grief.

May you all experience joy when you least expect it, love in forms you didn't predict, and endurance that comes from deep within yourselves... the strength you still have...loving relationships of family and friends.

“ I have been Pam's hairstylist for YEARS! So sorry for your loss, my heart aches for the family. Although I don't know her family personally, Pam always talked highly of her kids and grandkids. She always invited my kids and me to come play. I know she loved each and every one of you! This is a tough time, I hope you all can take one moment at a time, and enjoy memories of your speical mom/grandma! She will be greatly missed.

“ Nick called us to tell us the tragic news and we want to say how deeply sorry we are. It was so unexpected which makes it even harder on those of us who share your grief. We hope that the outpouring of sympathy you are receiving is some consolation at this very sad time. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. May Pam rest in Peace.
