“ I am so sorry to the Baravetto family about the loss of Grandma Pat. She was such a wonderful human, and I think I still have my little Novena booklet that she shared with me as a kid. I used to love spending summer days at her house with Brittany, and I loved that she always had cocoa pebbles. Sending thoughts and prayers to you all.

“ One of the biggest Packer fans we've ever known. She proudly wore her Packer gear, necklace etc. She also loved her family, grandkids and was the first one to smooch everyone hi / bye. Wonderful lady. She'll be missed but memories of her will last forever. Love to all her family & friends.
