

Patricia Bond

September 24, 1927 - May 19, 2016

Patricia (Dyer) Bond of Clearwater, Florida passed away on May 19, 2016 in Clearwater. She was born on Sept. 24, 1927 in Iron Mountain, the daughter of the late Ralph J. and Dorothy Dyer.

Pat graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1945 and Elgin Community College. She had an associate's degree in accounting and was a licensed skilled care nursing home administrator.

Pat married John D. Bond on Oct. 16, 1946 and they had a wonderful thirty six years before his death in 1985. They relocated to Elgin, IL in 1954 and again to Green Bay in 1972, before retiring and returning to Iron Mountain in 1983. After the death of her husband, Pat moved to Clearwater, spending her summers in Iron Mountain until 2010.

In May of 1998, she married Raymond G. East and he preceded her in death.

Pat was a lifelong Episcopalian and attended church regularly, wherever she was living or visiting. She was a member of the Lady Elks in Elgin and a life member of the St. Vincent Hospital Auxiliary in Green Bay, where she served as president in 1975.

Pat is survived by her beloved and devoted daughter Lori J. Bond of Clearwater, her nephew David D. Dyer of Iron Mountain, and several cousins, friends, including many special friends from her school days.

She was preceded in death by her older sister, Gwendlyn, younger brother Drew J. Dyer, and nephew Daniel W. Dyer.

Graveside services will be held on Monday, August 29, 2016 at 2:30 pm at Cemetery Park.
