

Patricia Carlson

September 26, 1926 - September 26, 2009

CRYSTAL FALLS - Patricia J. Carlson, 83, of 245 Jule Lake Road in Crystal Falls, died Saturday, Sept. 26, 2009, at Dickinson County Memorial Hospital.

Patricia was born July 21, 1925, in Kingsford, daughter of the late Arthur and Dorthea (Wegner) Berg. She graduated from Kingsford High School in 1944. Patricia worked in the shipyards of California during World War II, and as a comptometer operator at the Ford Motor Co.

After marrying Charles J. Carlson on June 28, 1952, she worked as co-owner of the family business, Jule Lake Greenhouses. Patricia was an avid florist, as well as hunter and fisher - outdoor activities that she enjoyed with her husband Charles.

She was also a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Kingsford, and for several years, helped plant the church flower gardens. Patricia also ran one of the Mastodon Township voting precincts from her home in the years before the easternmost township had an established voting facility.

She is survived by her son, Shawn Carlson of Jule Lake; her brother, Charles "Bruce" Berg of Imlay City, Mich.; and by many other close friends and family.

Patricia was preceded in death by her husband, Charles in 2001 and by her sister, Kathleen "Kitty" Menger.

Visitation will be Thursday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain.

Funeral services will follow at 12 noon at the funeral home. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

Burial will be in Dickinson County Memorial Gardens.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Patricia Carlson online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements.

“ Shawn, Dear Friend, I am so sorry for your loss and continue to focus on you in my thoughts during this very difficult time. I, personally, thought your mother was "a pip" and hope your happiest memories will remind you of how she helped shape you into the man you are today!
