“ So many memories of growing up together on Saginaw St. The hours we spent in your basement playing house. I always looked forward to your mom making popcorn and bringing it down to us. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Pat's death. I first met the twins in fifth grade when my family moved to Norway, and I remember how they included me and made me feel at home in my new city. I too got reacquainted at last year's reunion but wish we would have more years to continue the connection.

“ To the Patricia A. Gyselinck Jauquet Family and especially her sister, Shirley.

"When you view the beauty of the night sky, perhaps they are not stars in the sky, but rather openings where our loved ones shine down to let us know they are happy."

God surely is holding her in his grasp. With deepest sympathy on the loss of Pat.

“ Although our paths went in different directions, it is a real honor to be able to call Pat a "true" friend. We shared many laughs and memories in our majors classes at NMU. We sure loved Ms. Ferns and Dr. Bemis, did we not?

To the family, my most sincere prayers for fostering most pleasant thoughts of Pat. She really came up with some good ones and sometimes underestimated her sense of humor.

Pat, you left a beautiful legacy for your family and friends, and I know I am a better person for having had you and the "Norway" family in my life.

May God grant you eternal peace.

“ I was so saddened to receive the message that Pat had passed away. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. Pat and Shirley were classmates of mine all through school and I fondly remember birthday parties at their home. It was so nice seeing them for the first time in many years at our recent 50th class reunion.

“ Dear Family and Friends of Pat,
I was deeply saddened to learn of Pat's passing. Please accept my sincere condolences. She was my high school classmate as well as my roommate at NMU for a few years. I had just recently reconnected with her and Shirley at our 50th class reunion. In fact, we sat next to each other during the meal! Pat talked about her wonderful husband who encouraged her to stay at home to raise their two children. She also expressed her total love for her sweet grandchildren and, of course, wanted only the best for them and her family. Pat was a talented, dear lady and I am proud to call her my friend. I am truly sorry for your loss.
Sincerely,
Nancy Lusardi
