“ Your mom was one in a million! I truly admired her courage, spirit and zest for life. I know I will see her in my garden and every adventure we undertake..... she made me do a black run when she joined us skiing in Red River, NM.... and she was right - I could do it! And she didn't laugh too hard when I fell down a couple (!) of times - what great fun! She was a good person and Alan and I feel honored to have been counted among her friends. She is beyond her physical limitations now and we know she"s flying high! God bless you and your families in this time of great sorrow... we know you will find great comfort in the wonderful memories of your mom. Love,
Alan and Marcia
