

Penny Maurina

April 26, 1948 - April 26, 2010

Penny L. Maurina, 62 of Iron Mountain, passed away on Tuesday, April 26, at Dickinson Co. Memorial Hospital. She was born on October 25, 1947, daughter of the late Edwin and Adelaide (Wald) Sandercock. Penny was raised in Iron Mountain and was a 1965 graduate of Iron Mountain High School. She married Steve "Barney" Maurina on October 26, 1987 in Iron Mountain and he preceded her in death in 1998. She spent twelve years in White Pine and returned to this area in 2004. Penny was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church and volunteered at the Wednesday night Community Meal at the Church. She loved horses and enjoyed spending time with friends.

Penny is survived by her sons, Jeff (Melissa) Stroud of Hancock and Brandon (Carrie) Stroud of Iron Mountain; a sister, Jill (Ray) Kidd of Haslett, MI; and six grandchildren, Laiken Stroud, Aspen Stroud-Holmes, Coral Stroud, Savanna Stroud, Parker Stroud and Fulton Stroud. She is also survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.

Memorial services will be held at a date to be announced later.

“ When I was a kid, Sandy Sandercock and his family lived next door to us at the top of the hill on D & Park Avenue in Iron Mountain. We also lived in White Pine when they lived there. I was in Penny's graduating class and many other classes with her as we were growing up in IM.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
