

Peter G. Koelbl

March 11, 1947 - July 20, 2021

Randville -- Peter G. Koelbl, 74, of Randville, passed away on July 20, 2021 at Clement J. Zablocki Veteran's Hospital in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Pete was born on March 11, 1947 in Iron Mountain to the late William Koelbl and the late Delores Koelbl (Lehmann) of Randville. He graduated from Channing High School in 1965 and was a life-long resident of the area. Pete proudly served his country in the United States Coast Guard from 1967-1971. He married the late Debra Lynn Cuggino on March 11, 1972. They had three children together and would later divorce. He then met his soul mate and best friend, Jean Raduchel. They spent 20 plus years together before her passing.

Pete was a jack of all trades. From truck driver to laborer. He retired from Aspen Lumber of Sagola in 2009. He enjoyed being out in the woods, reading, listening to country music, helping his family and friends whenever possible, and spending time with his four-legged best friend, Jake (before his passing in 2018).

Pete was preceded in death by his parents, William and Delores Koelbl; a brother, James Koelbl, and a sister, Louise Koelbl.

Pete is survived by his three children, Delores "Dee" Cuggino (Koelbl) of Norway; James Koelbl of Norway; Kari Koelbl of Lake Linden; one brother, William Koelbl of Aurora, Wisconsin; two sisters, Ruth Koelbl of Norway and Rebecca Luke (Kirk) of Randville; three grandsons, Michael Massicotte of Laurium; Dakota (Sahvanna) Massicotte of Clovis, New Mexico; Quinton Lambert of Calumet/Lake Linden; three great-grandchildren; Kendall and Kaydyn Massicotte of Laurium; Madizon Massicotte of Clovis, New Mexico and many nieces and nephews.

Military graveside honors will take place at the Quinnesec Cemetery on Friday, July 30, 2021 at 3 pm. The Uren-Cooper-Johnson American Legion Post 50 will conduct the honors assisted by the United States Coast Guard.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at both the Oscar G. Johnson VA of Iron Mountain and the Clement J. Zablocki VA of Milwaukee, WI for all they did for Peter over the last five and a half years.

Condolences can be expressed for Peter Koelbl online at www.ernashfuneralhome.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon-Nash Funeral Home with the arrangements.
