Phyllis Jean "Snooks" Kanyuh passed away peacefully at home on November 15, 2020.

She was preceded in death by her parents Paul and Myrtle Click, and her infant brothers, Jackie and Tommy, of Salt Lick, KY.

Snooks was a beautiful, generous, sharp witted, southern belle, known as the "Classy Lassy" to her husband of 61 years, Bob. Aside from her family, she enjoyed quilting and gardening. She will be sadly missed and leaves a hole in the hearts of all of us that loved her.

“ *Uncle Bob, Tammy, & Tonya,
I am so very sorry for your loss. It doesn't matter how old they are, how good or bad their health was, how much they believed they were headed to a better place, or anything at all. It still hurts terribly.
A hurt you never get over. One you just get conditioned to over time. Prayers that you will all have the strength to carry on and get through these horrible days until with time it gets a little easier. Love to all, Kathi*

“ Snooks was Aunt Phyllis to me, but my memories start as Uncle Bobby’s niece and my attendance to their wedding at only 10 years old. I always remember Uncle Bobby lovingly hugging Aunt Phyllis and the huge family that always had some kind of opinion that needed to be aired, but Uncle Bob always was Aunt Phyllis’ white knight! Not that she needed one, but she appreciated Uncle Bob’s chivalry. Even though there were 26 cousins, we always found our favorite ones and hung out at many places such as the Norway Hotel, the cottages on the Lake and running around at the many camps out in the woods. Aunt Phyllis always brought a smile to my face, and even as I got older and my visits dwindled down to 5 years or more between visits, she was always trying hard to make sure we all knew our importance within this large family. I’m blessed to have had the love and guidance from Aunt Phyllis and Uncle Bob and the many other Aunts, Uncles, cousins and grandparents! Aunt Phyllis always thought it important that we knew our heritage and family history and often collected “data” and wrote it down in notebooks, letters and sharing family stories. There are so many family members that have passed on over the years, so I can only imagine the beautiful welcome party she is enjoying now as the left behind family and friends grieve her loss! Blessings to all family and especially Uncle Bobby, I recently lost my John and know the gut wrenching loss you feel, but I do know that the grieving process is up and down with the path getting easier as more time slips by! I love you Aunt Phyllis for the beautiful life we shared as family! ❤️ 🤔
