“ To the Family and Others close to Ralph Sutton -

I will never forget the times I got to spend with Ralph. Although I called him my "Uncle Ralph," he was never my blood relative...although you could hardly tell with the way he held myself and my family close to him. From him pulling me as fast as he could just to see me fall off the tube behind the boat to those random Saturday afternoons I would stop in to just say hello and have a nice chat, he was always there with a good joke and that gripping handshake! I won't forget you and will always be thinking of you when we're out on the lake. With deepest sympathy I pass along my condolences.

“ To the Family of Ralph Sutton:

We am so sorry that Ralph passed away. He was a great neighbor who had a GREAT taste of Jazz and seemed to have an endless appetite for reading. Always friendly, always with a interesting view of the weather. We'll miss having conversations with him in his strolls in front of our house in his bathrobe....he seemed to know how to live life. We never knew if he liked the food we made him, but we just wanted to do something for a neighbor who wasn't feeling well. Prayers and blessing to you all. The Peters
