"Ralph Verley"

QUINNESEC - Ralph H. Verley, 96, of Quinnesec, died Thursday, Feb. 27, 2003 at Freeman's Convalescent Home.

He was born Dec. 1, 1906 in Sheridan, Wyo., son of the late William and Alvena (Fraker) Verley.

Ralph married Mildred Tippett on June 5, 1926 in Crystal Falls. He was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Iron Mountain. Ralph was a jack of all trades. He could do everything - plumbing, electrical, builder, wood working, car painting and repair. He worked for Ford Motor Co. for 22 years, Grand Ledge Michigan Academy Craft Shop, drove truck for D & B Freight Sales for many years out of Iron Mountain and he owned and operated a mechanic shop out of his garage. Ralph was part of the crew who built the little stone church on the corner of Carpenter and C.

Ralph is survived by his wife of 76 years, Mildred Verley; two sons, Ralph Jr. (Irene) Verley of Arlington Heights, Ill. and Norman (Evelyn) Verley of Quinnesec; three daughters, Lois (Bruce) Ring of Iron Mountain, Della (Ron) VanAlstine of Quinnesec and Susan (Charles) Kempf of Quinnesec; 11 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren. He was also preceded in death by five brothers, Harold, Cecil, Archie, Victor, and Floyd, and a sister, Carla Trecartin.

Private family services will be held at a later date.
