

Randall M. Ocic Sr.

August 3, 1958 - July 14, 2023

Randall "Randy" Max Ocic, 64, of Iron Mountain, MI, passed away on July 14, 2023.

Born on August 3, 1958, in Chicago, Illinois, Randy was a talented guitar player and a self-taught musician from the age of three. Throughout his life, he showcased his musical skills as a member of various bands, performing in Iron Mountain, Michigan, Cicero, IL, and numerous private venues over the past 30 years. Randy's passion for music was evident in his accomplished career as a guitar player. His dedication and talent allowed him to captivate audiences with his melodies and bring joy to those who had the pleasure of listening to his music. His self-taught skills were a testament to his determination and love for his craft.

Beyond his musical pursuits, Randy had a wide range of hobbies that brought him happiness and relaxation. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, and spending time jamming with his best friends. These activities allowed him to unwind and connect with nature and the people he cherished most.

Randy will be deeply missed by his loved ones. He is survived by his son, Randall Jr.; his daughter, Sarah (Jon); his granddaughter, Angelisa; his sister, Danette (John); as well as his best friends, Joe G, Mike B, and many others who shared in his passion for music and life.

Randy was preceded in death by his wife, Billie; his father, Max; his mother, Sondra; and his beloved pitbull, Bonnie Sue.

A small private service will be held at a later date, where Randy will be laid to rest next to his parents in Sibley, Illinois. This intimate gathering will allow his family and close friends to pay their final respects and honor his memory.

Randy's talent, passion, and warm spirit will forever be remembered by those whose lives he touched. His music will continue to inspire and bring joy to all who listen. May he rest in peace.

Tribute Wall

“ Randy's love for the guitar 🎸 and his talent to play by ear does not end here. It will be carried on by future generations through his son, Joshua James and his grandson, Mason James. Both of them play self taught rock & roll and they shall continue to do so all of their days.
