

Randel E. Moore

November 2, 1947 - July 17, 2024

Randel “Bo” Eugene Moore, 76, of Randville, MI, passed away July 17, 2024, at Aurora St. Luke’s Medical Center in Milwaukee, WI.

He was born November 2, 1947, son of Eugene “Julio” and Mary Ann (Horak) Moore. He was raised on his dad’s family farm in Monroe, MI, and was proud of his mom’s strong Czech heritage. He was a graduate of the Monroe High School Class of 1965. After high school Bo joined the United States Army and served 2 years during the Vietnam War. He was a charter member of the Carleton Motorcycle Club and loved the freedom that came with riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle. In 1981 he moved from the Monroe area to the Upper Peninsula when he surrendered his life to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. In 1982 he married his wife of 42 years, Sandy (Moore), at Kingsford Maranatha Assembly of God Church.

Bo was a fan of the Michigan Wolverines, the Detroit Lions, the Detroit Tigers, and NASCAR Racing. He was a great gardener and made the best chili. He enjoyed listening to the Oldies and Classic Rock, especially Bob Seger’s, “Old Time Rock and Roll.”

Bo had a great love for his family and his church. He had a special place in his heart for shut-ins and for many years, on Sundays after church, he visited local nursing homes to encourage their residents. Bo retired as a truck driver/mechanic from M. J. Electric in 2009.

Randel is survived by his wife, Sandra; children, Shane Moore, Abigail Evans (Steve), Sarah Dukes (Brandon), and Matthew Moore; brother, Rene Moore (Ann); sisters, Robbin Zeitz (Ted) and Roxanne Moore; brother-in-law, James Moore; and sisters-in-law, Sheila Hall, Susan Shehan, Sherry Jahn (Rick), and Lea Wood (Joe); grandchildren, Riley, Eli, Amia, and Mariana Dukes; and several nieces and nephews.

Randel was preceded in death by his father and mother, father-in-law, James Moore; mother-in-law, Faye Herrick; brother, Raymond Moore; brothers-in-law, Dan VanFleet, Jerry Moore, and Ron Hall, sisters-in-law, Kaye Moore, Beatrice Moore, and Sharon Kaminski; closest friends, Gary Standifer and Ted Carpenter, and other loved ones.

The family would like to express their gratitude to the staff at Aurora BayCare in Green Bay and to the staff at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center Coronary ICU in Milwaukee for their care of Bo.

Services will be held at the Kingsford Maranatha Assembly of God Church with visitation on Friday, July 26, 2024, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, July 27, 2024, from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. followed by his Celebration of Life at 11:00 a.m., officiated by Reverend David Wilton. “ Dear Sandy & Family ~ Although we are saddened by the passing of Bo, we also sing praises to God because we know there is no more tears, or suffering pain. Bo is at rest and in the peace and love of the loving arms of our Lord Jesus Christ. Can I get big AMEN?!! Bo was a welcomed presence at our home when we gathered for games, picnics and celebrations. His sense of humor was his own as was his laughter but he never ceased to get a chuckle from people. I thoroughly enjoyed talking with him one-on-one because there was a mystery about him. He was always sincere when he spoke of topics that concerned him. And he was almost always eager to lend a helping hand. To me, he was a "gentle Ben". And that is how I will remember him. I regret that he had to suffer so much at the end. Still I smile when I heard he passed "peacefully" when his time came. Bo, we will miss you. Thank you for your friendship. Rest in peace Brother. God bless you, Sandy, and your beautiful family.
Love you all, Bonnie & Cooper

We rejoice with Bo because he has left us to be with his Lord and savior. We are grateful that his pain is finished. We will always remember the early days when we gathered for meals and Bible study. Also the many Christmas eves spent at Mark & Marcys. We are ever so grateful for those times. Although we grieve Bo's passing, we know we will have a huge celebration one day when all of us are reunited. Hugs and loving prayers are sent your way as you mourn Bo's passing. We love each of you. ❤️
