“ Ive been searching for Randy for a while when I found out just today 12-3-15 that he passed. I wish I would have gotten on Facebook years sooner. I'll miss Gorp From Orp as we called him in USMC bootcamp because one of the drill instructors had his same name(Stroud). If I could talk to you Shelly about him that would be cool. “ Dearest Sharry

I am so very sorry to read you have yet another family member pass away and to be your child makes it worse. No words can express what one feels at a time like this but my thoughts and prayers are with you and all your family. We were once "family" as my mom was married to Arky when she passed away. It is hard to understand why those we love are taken from us. When your heart is empty, filling it with happy memories can help you through the dark hours. When God calls a loved one home he leaves a gift of loving memories in return. May peace enter your heart and erase the grief you feel now.

*Regards,
Diane*

“ I wanted to send my sympathies to Randy's family. I had a chance to talk to Randy at Steve and Tracy's reception a little over a year ago. I thoroughly enjoyed my conversation with him and catching up on old times. He will be missed. I will always remember Randy as a very good person and am glad I had a chance to talk to him one more time. God's Blessings.

“ Randy your life was cut way to short. I'm glad to have met you. You were a great friend. We had some great times. Was wishing once the kids were up and gone we could hunt and fish the world. I'm going to miss all funny and odd ball comments. Like when you use to get Prus going. I'm really going to miss you. I wish we were not separated by 1,800 miles. That was a fun road trip from the U.P. to North Carolina. Shelly take care of yourself and the kids. I will talk to you soon. You guys are in our prayers.
