

Raymond Scott Grandahl

September 4, 1963 - February 19, 2016

Raymond S. Grandahl, 52, of Niagara, WI died of unexpected health issues on February 19, 2016 at his home. Raymond was born in Green Bay, WI on September 4, 1963, son of the late Arvo (Sonny) Grandahl and Dolores Bardon. Raymond was a cable installer employed by Wide Open West (WOW!) Cable. Ray liked the woods very much and enjoyed hunting and fishing. He also had an interest in electronics, specifically HAM radios, which he operated.

Ray is survived by his brother, Robert (Crystal) Grandahl; sisters, Shelley (Dave) Payette and Nikki (Terry) Bidelman; nieces, Cassie and Courtney Grandahl; nephew Kyle (Natalie) Grandahl; other relatives, LeRoy (Shirley) Kangas and Jimmy (Marie) Kangas; and several cousins.

Ray was preceded in death by his parents, Arvo (Sonny) Grandahl and Dolores Bardon.

A small service will be held in the spring. Burial will be in Ironwood, MI.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Raymond Grandahl online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron

Mountain with the arrangements.

“ Rob, Shelley and Nikki,
I am still in shock over the passing of your brother Ray. He was a good ole boy and a hard worker. I remember when I spent the summer in Ironwood and riding dirt bikes and hanging out at the baseball field with Ray and his friends. That was the best summer of my childhood.
My thoughts are with you guys.
