“ *Russell, Jamie and family...
We are so sorry for your loss. I wish there were some words I could say that would take away your pain, but I know there are none.
Please know we are here for ANYTHING you need!! We love you!!*

“ i found the link on teh infant loss board and wanted to let you know that you are not alone. You have suffered a loss greater than most people can imagine and those who can only want to take the pain away.

*as time goes on you will find a strength you never knew you had.
you will find strength to get up each morning and most importantly the strength to love you beautiful baby girl even though kisses are no longer possible.*

you carry an angel in your heart now. speak to her freely and feel her love for i know she still loves you as she did in life maybe more.

“ Rayna's stone is now in place and it is beautiful. The little angel is so fitting. Sweet baby Rayna-our precious little angel is now being cared for by her Maker. We miss her terribly. She touched us in the way only a new perfect life can. Lord, I miss her. Take care of her and love her-hold her for me until one day I can hold her again myself.
