"Remigio Cecconi"

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. - Remigio "Ray" Cecconi, 88, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., passed away peacefully on Monday, Sept. 22, 2003, eight days before his 89th birthday.

Ray was born in Iron Mountain, oldest of six children to Angelo and Margaret Cecconi. Quite the businessman, he owned his first grocery store on Hughitt Street at the age of 21, and then Cecconi's Super Market on Stephenson Avenue. In 1959, Ray moved his family to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. as the owners of the Graymar Motel on Harbor Drive. Since his retirement at the early age of 55, he resided at the Venetian Condominium on Ft. Lauderdale Beach, and became an avid golfer. He more recently resided at The Garden of Health, an Alzheimer's facility.

Ray was preceded in death by his first wife, Mary; his daughter, Donna; his second wife, Anita; his two brothers; and two of his sisters.

He is survived by two daughters, Judy (Bob) Meagher of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. and Sue (Dusty) Reed of The Woodlands, Texas; four grandchildren, Bob III (Robin) Meagher, Kacey Meagher, and Justin and Dillion Reed; one great-grandson, Joey Meagher; one sister, Lodavine (Richard) Thorne of Menominee; a sister-in-law, Patricia Cecconi of Iron Mountain; and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial Mass will be held on Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Iron Mountain. Msgr. James Kaczmarek will offer the Mass of Christian Burial. Burial will be at Cemetery Park in Iron Mountain.

A reception will be held in the Sharing Room immediately following the Mass. Condolences may be expressed to the family of Remigio Cecconi online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the funeral arrangements

“ Dear Judy and Sue,

My deepest sympathies on the passing of your father.

May you be comforted by my kind and loving thoughts sent your way. I have fond memories of you and your family from childhood. Uncle Ray was a kind, loving, and generous man.

I would welcome the opportunity to communicate with both of you.

*Love,
Patricia*
