“ I will not Forget Rich or the kindness he showed to me and my young Son Matt.
He drove out to where we resided with a friend one summer morning. I had been completely painting the outside of our house. I could not reach the very upper portion of the house to complete the painting.
Between Rich & His Friend--the painting was completed.
Rich is a really good person with--- a Kind Caring Loving Helpful Thoughtful Man. I enjoyed Rich very much and yes he always made me laugh and put a big smile on my face with his personality.
I know that Rich's gentle loving Spirit will travel on to a much higher dimension of life.
You are greatly loved Rich and My Prayers are with Your Rich & All Your Loved Ones.
Shine Bright in Heaven Rich---I Know You Will!

“ There are many stories I can tell about my brother. Most of these are best told in the company of family and friends with a beer in hand.

I will say that Rich felt things deeply. There are two sides to this coin but the best thing for me was his ability to make me laugh. This is a gift that is all too rare to find in people but he had it.

I don't think I'll ever laugh like that again....in this life.

For those who would like know more about Rich, check out the lyrics to Jackson Browne's "Doctor My Eyes" This was one of his favorite songs.

“ Norm, Lauren and Family. You have my most sincere sympathy in your loss of Rich. He was a good friend and fellow Vet who just had a tough time like many do. But I will always remember him. Rich - God Bless You!!

At Ease Soldier, You are Dismissed!! He and your Dad are now shooting a game of Pool, possibly with Garth Dean and Bimbo watching.

“ I always thought Uncle Rich was the "cool" uncle because of all the tattoos :). Don't worry, I love all my uncles equally lol. I loved his attitude and personality. He will be greatly missed but his life will be celebrated. I couldn't ask for a better family than the one I have. I love you all. I love you uncle Rich. Give grandma and grandpa a big hug from me!
