“ Derrick, Sandy, Lisa, Duane, Earl.

I was so sad to hear of Rich's passing. I thought of him often and all the good times we had as kids, sleeping on rugs at Gramma Maria and Grampa Mike's, going sledding, skating, hitting each other in the head with shovels and swings. We had good times when we both lived in Milwaukee, WI visiting with friends Marge and Gene Schiavo - Rich playing his accordian and Norm playing the sax.

I will have a continuous reminder of Rich as my son Mike looks a lot like him, makes the same silly sounds Rich did and has the same endearing smile.

Our sympathis to all of you and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Derrick and Family,

You don't remember me, but I'll never forget Rich. He was and will always be the funniest guy I'll ever know. But more than that, he had a unique way of making everyone around him feel great, even if they were just meeting him for the first time.

I hope to carry some of that with me in his honor. Your family is in our prayers.

Words are inadequate at such a difficult time, but please know our sympathy and warmest thoughts are with you and your families in this time of grief. Rich was an amazing person, we will never forget his smile and laugh. I (Mike) have many fond memories of fishing, hunting and hanging out at camp with your dad. He was like a second dad to me. “ Dear family and loved ones of Richard. Please accept my sincere condolences. Rich was my close friend when we grew up together in Beechwood. I have many pleasant memories of our adventures together. Once he helped me through an especially dark time I experienced, and I am still grateful for that. Though we lost touch over the years, I still am deeply saddened by his passing. I hope you are able to find some comfort, as I have, in remembering the good times we were privileged to share with him. Rob Shaver

“ Dear Family of Rich,
Although most of you won't know us. We knew your Dad. As youngsters, we all grew up together in the Beechwood area.
Kids in the country spent a lot of quality time together. Playing baseball, sleigh riding. going to Halloween parties at the Beechwood Hall. All the memories were good ones.
A sad time for all of us. Take care.
(My daughter Darcie informed me of your Dad's passing.)
To Duane, Earl and families. We're tinking of you.
