“ Bob was an impressive high school baseball pitcher. He could throw a lightning fastball with such force that his cap would fly off his head.

While I was working one summer in the K-C Mill he was my partner. He was a fine person indeed.

“ I'll always remember Bobs's birding updates before Saturday night mass during the summers. He would be so excited to have seen certain birds returning for the summer. I'll miss his wry humor and most of all his presence in my life. Farewell Bob, until we meet again!
