“ On a sad moment, good memories still come through about Cousin Butch and our growing up days. It's hard to just single one out since he was so much a part of my childhood and memories of Spread Eagle, even some in Colorado. Alot of them are of running around- -1st barefoot around the lake properties, then into the boats, and then some back on land. So here's a toast to Cousin Butch. Thanks for all the memories. Bev

“ I have many fond memories of my Uncle Bobby. The one that stands out most in my mind is from very early in my childhood. We were visiting Aunt Ann and Uncle Bobby in their apartment in Milwaukee. I was the first one up, so Uncle Bobby made me oatmeal for breakfast. When he gave me the bowl of oatmeal, I gave it an odd look and told Uncle Bobby he hadn't made it right! (Out of the mouths of babes!) He gave me a look of surprise while stifling some laughter. I will never forget that look! I told him that you don't make oatmeal with water, you use milk, and you don't put butter on top, you put brown sugar on top. I later heard Uncle Bobby laughing with my Dad (Doug) about the incident...so knew I wasn't in trouble!

Aunt Ann and family, our love, thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Ann and Family,
We were so very sorry to hear of Butch's passing. He was a familiar figure riding in his boat(s) on Long Lake, making the rounds of all the relatives' docks. I was just going through old family photos and he is featured prominently in the pancake breakfasts and other gatherings during the wonderful summers at Spread Eagle! He will be missed!
