“ My most sincere condolences to Anita and family in the loss of Bob. He was indeed a wonderful, personable individual who's presence will be missed by all who knew him. It is indeed hard to say our Good-Byes to loved ones, but hopefully it will be a comfort to remember that Bob has returned "Safely Home", and is safely in the arms of our Lord where he will wait in a place without pain and suffering! God Bless you and your loved ones and keep you all safely in the Palm of His Hands. Gene

“ We'll remember Uncle Bob as head of the family for all the Carollo's. "Brother" was the go-to man to get things done for "Sis" and we cherish the close relationship they had. We celebrate Uncle Bob's rich, long life and send our love and words of comfort to the family who will forever miss him. Peace to all.
