“ To Bob's family,

I never got the privilege of meeting Bob in person, but did have the opportunity to get to know him via the phone. Besides discussing things pertaining to Airgas, we learned that we both enjoyed the history of WWII. Bob was missed at Airgas when he had to leave, but not as much as he is missed now.

“ With regrets and sympathy we are with Donna, Paul, Traci during this hard time in their life. The loss of a loved one is always painful. Just getting to see Bobby and spend time with him and his family during this last 16 months was a joy that I did not want to end. You are always with us and in our hearts and prayers. " The Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles" Isaiah 40:31. We love you all.

“ Dear Donna & Paul & Family:
We are so very sorry and sadden to hear about Bobby. Words can never take away the pain that we feel at the loss of a loved one or friend, but may it help in some small way that you all are in our prayers.
As I was praying , this is what came to me.
Yes, we are all very sadden about the loss (to say the least) of a friend & brother, there is a void and emptiness there, but if we can stop & think for a moment about "our friend & brother", about how it happened to be this time of the year,
What greater gift could your friend have, then to be in glory with the Savior and "His" birthday to share,where is only joy and happiness and no pain & tears

“ For some reason Bob was one of the few Charlie Co. men that I remebered from Vietnam. When he attended the last 2 reunions he was so full of life. Happy and seeming to be going to live forever. We all know that we are mortal and will all someday go to the Lord. Bob is one person I look forward to meeting there. Donna be strong in the love that we all have for Bob. God Bless you and yours and know that our prayers and thoughts and love are with you.

“ Dearest Donna,

My time with you and Bob was brief, but over the course of just a few a days this past June, my heart began to love you both. Please know my thoughts are with you and my prayers have already found their way to heaven. I know first hand the loss you feel and for that reason my tears fall. To find peace in times of suffering is difficult but I find great solace knowing Bob is dancing with the angels in his halo and wings. I hope you feel the love and warm embrace being sent your way.
