“ Thoughts and prayers for the family. As a child growing up I have many fond memories on the farm with you and your siblings. I've cherished those memories over the years and when I'm with my siblings we always smile when we talk about the farm and the fun times.

“ My Dad and I always hung around together and I learned a lot of things from Dad. I learned how to fix a car, install plumbing, electrical wiring, cut down trees and saw them into logs and build a house from the ground up, shoot a rifle or bow and arrow. All important things that have come in handy over the years. But most of all I enjoyed just hanging around with Dad no matter what we were doing. Over the years we talked for many hours on the phone about football games, NASCAR racing, and other important conversations about just about anything. I enjoyed our talks and always looked forward to them and I know Dad did too. I will continue to have these conversations with Dad and think of him with love. Robin
