“ Aunt Aggie, Our prayers are with you. Rod couldn't have asked for a more caring uncle. The summers he spent with all of you in Hardwood are his best childhood memories. I remember my own intro to the family as a young (city) girl and the warm welcome I always felt with you both.
He will be missed and will remain in our prayers.
With our love, Rod and Barb

“ I have the pleasure of being one of his daughters friends from High School. My father is in Manor Care Nursing Home where Mr Massie spent his last few weeks. I would stop down to visit him about once a day. He always thanked me for stopping by to say hello, and so did his wife. I will miss stopping by to see him when I go to visit my dad. I had visited him a few years back when he was there after I beleive some surgery for rehab. He was always very pleasant to me. I will remember him. May his family members I got to remeet know they are in my prayers along with his wife, Aggie and my friend, his daughter Denise.
May he rest in peace.

“ I have had the pleasure of being one of his daughter-in-laws for 37 years. I have grown to know and love Dad over the years. I watched him be the GREAT husband to Ag and father to his children. His grandsons couldn't have asked for a more kind and loving Grandfather. He adored his kids, grandkids and great grandkids, but above all, he truly adored his best friend, Mom. She took care of him right up to the end. . We have spend countless hours together over the years. We will cherish the time spend with Dad and the memories will help all of us through this trying time of our lives. We love you Dad. May he rest in peace.
