“ Bob was a wonderful friend. Whenever there was a service project, he was there to help whether it was someone moving, helping to “tidy up” a senior person's yard, or make sure their electrical wiring was safe.

And then there was his smile. It brightened up a whole room! Even when he was sad or not feeling his best, he would smile. Thank you, Bob, for your gentle, caring way.

Sincerest condolences to Jennifer, Gail, Amy, Scott, and Wendy,
Robin Kennedy

“ I remember many things about Dad. Growing up, in the summer, he would come home from work and take Amy and me to the lake. In the winter, He would make a little ice rink on the side of the house for us because we loved to ice skate. I also have a picture of him building a snowman for us. We also loved to sit behind him when he was on the couch and put his hair up in ponytail holders. He was very handy. When our two-bedroom house on Harrison St. needed more space, he remodeled the attic into bedrooms for Amy and me. He also loved country music, but I did not. He loved to tease me when driving me somewhere. He would roll the windows down and blast his music, and I would try to hide so no one would see me riding in a car that was blasting country music, LOL! He always loved to joke. He cared about his family. He came out to visit once after his divorce. He stayed with us, and while he was here, he assembled a new bed for my son, Zach, who still uses that bed today. When I was going through my divorce, he paid for my lawyer. Without that, I might have gotten a raw deal. When we hit a deer and totaled my van, he sent me money to get another vehicle. I don't know where I would be without his help.
