“ Bob's passing is another example of life being particularly precious and the need to remain close to old friends as time passes all of us by. My memories of Bob remain strong, notwithstanding that we lost contact over the past 20-25 years, after years of friendship in the Iron Mountain/Kingsford area. I still have a picture, that I am looking at now, of us setting off on one of our weekly fishing expeditions to parts unknown in the UP.....remote lakes and streams, the Menominee River, Paint Pond, etc. My sincere condolences to Kathy, Mark, Kim, Shane and Clint. I have missed Bob over the years, and I miss him today. Regards Bruce Corner.
