“ He had a garage down town niagara by the bar chalet bar and he had a ton of parts in there i was very young but I do remember him even at that young age he made a impression on me I remember my dad talking and he looked down to think before responding than an other thing he taught me when my daughter was the same age he taught me to tear her food into smaller pieces because the sandwich so large he said it was intimidating to her and it worked she at almost the whole sandwich I will never forget how he could put himself into a child's mind to figure that out but he said it was cause he was a dad too and for him to remember that it worked on his girls I just will never forget that moment

“ Robbie was a sweet child and in spite of his problems was kind-hearted and very intelligent. I was fortunate to see him shortly before he passed away. He had just come from the Niagara cemetery where he visited family graves. He always carried his bible with him and was knowledgeable about it. That day he was looking forward to his grandson's upcoming birthday and said he kept track of all those special days. He was a special person. I received a hug that day and was able to tell him I love him. We will miss him. Much love, Aunt Ila and Uncle Bob
