Shelly enjoyed flower gardening, shopping and 4-wheeling with her loving husband. She was an amazing painter and artist. “ Our family cannot express enough all our appreciation of thoughts and prayers for mom in the past couple months. She really did keep her sickness private- and she thought she was going to be able to fight this cancer, so not everyone knew. Unfortunately, time was not on her side.

She is such a brave woman and never looked more beautiful in the past couple weeks as she faced everything head on. She accomplished so much in four days- it was amazing. She was still doing crafts for her grandchildren 24 hours before she slipped into a coma.

She could not have done all of this without Nick. What an inspiration they were to each other! He is the best loving, compassionate, husband any woman could ever ask for - and this was very evident up until the very last moment they spent together.

Thank you, Papa for being by her side- you two are very blessed to have that once in a lifetime love- that will never die.

God Bless you, Mom. We know you are still being loved and cared for in Heaven.

“ Nick and family,
So sorry to read about Shelly, I didn't know she was sick.
We worked together for years and she was such a fun person to work with. She sure loved all of you lots.
She talked about the kids and grandkids all the time.
She will be missed and too young to have gone.

“ Nick and family. I'm so sorry for the loss of Shelly. All of us at Shopko are full of sorrow. How could the good Lord take her away from all of us?

I'll always think of Shelly when eating watermelon she loved them so much. Our Birthdays were in the same week. We watched the same soaps even! I'll think of her often with smiles thinking of work in Bra -land and the purses. She taught me alot at work. Done by one lets have some fun! And we missed her

She sure loved her kids, grand kids and her dog. Nick your in the mix too. You two were never far apart. I'm so sorry her last few months were so difficult for you all. She would never want for that. She was such a fighter.

May the good Lord help you all in this time of sorrow and may your memories of Shelly last all the days of your lives.

“ I am so glad I got to see Auntie Shelly over the 2010 Memorial Day weekend while up in the U.P. visiting with my dad's side of the family!!! It had sure been a long time--7 years since I had seen her and it was at my mom's funeral back in 2003. Too long...

When I shared with my 6 year old yesterday the sad news that Auntie Shelly had gone to heaven and we were headed up north for the celebration of her life Ciara said "Mom - she's with my Grandma Joan in heaven now! Isn't this great??? She is with her sister and we have another angel looking over us!! " It was just precious...

I have to bet they are both painting up a storm together in heaven this very moment and so at peace....What a beautiful thought!
