

Ronald Learned

February 5, 2009

IRON MOUNTAIN - Ronald E. Learned, 66, of Fort Worth, Texas, formerly of Iron Mountain and Norway, died Thursday, Feb. 5, 2009, at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth.

He was born on March 30, 1942, in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Edward and Marquerite (Stokes) Learned. Ron graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1960. He was a self-taught mechanical engineer and liked using his computer. He was a pilot and owned his own plane years ago. He also enjoyed cars and speed boats.

He was a very talented musician and had the gift of playing music by ear. He also was very generous and had opened his house to teens.

Ron leaves his son, Eddie of Fort Worth; one sister, Harriet (Larry) Goodchild of Iron Mountain; one brother, Samuel (Carol) Learned of Niagara, Wis.; nieces and nephews, Margaret (Robert) Bray, Scott (Holly) Learned, RoxAnne (Randy) Deneau, and Shelly (Anthony) Nottoli; and seven great-nieces and great-nephews.

Funeral services will be Tuesday, June 30, at 10 a.m. at Cemetery Park. Rev. Jim Danielson will officiate.

Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences to the family of Ronald Learned may be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“ gotta love an obit that says "he also opened his house up to teens".
They should tell the truth of HOW he supposedly opened up his house to teens!

“ I was wondering if this was the same Ron Learned that opened his home to me as a teen in Olathe Kansas in 1983
