“ I always admired Auntie Rose for caring for Grandpa Tony in his senior years. She took such good care of him and made him feel special. She also taught me how to pick out and cook a good porketta. You leave us with special memories of all the family gatherings. We will miss you.

“ We will always remember Aunt Rose's bubbly personality and ready smile. Being the only girl with all those Izzo brothers didn't stop her from leading the family and making sure traditions and reunions were steady. Consider myself lucky to have had such an amazing woman in my life. Fond memories wil stay with us forever.
