“ My condolences to the entire family on the loss of both Lorna and Roy. For many years I lived 2 houses apart on Fleshiem Street and also knew them through church and Roys association with the Gideons. The Lord never blessed any finer people than Roy and Lorna. I will truly miss them. We should all take comfort in that neither of them will ever suffer again and that they will forever be together. My best wishes to all and may the Lord comfort your families.
