

Roy Johnson

March 19, 1941 - March 19, 2013

Roy G. Johnson, 72, of Kingsford, passed away on March 19, 2013 at his home. He was born on Nov. 12, 1940 in Iron Mountain, the son of the late Gottfried and Agnes (Carlson) Johnson. He graduated from Iron Mountain High School with the Class of 1959 and went on to work for the Wisconsin Electric Power Company for thirty-seven years.

Roy was a member of the Elks International, the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, and United Commercial Travelers, where he was a member for 53 years. He was an avid hunter and fisherman all of life. He also enjoyed going to camp to feed the deer and bear, and to play cards with his kids.

He married Elaine Richter on June 30, 1978 in Iron Mountain.

Roy is survived by his wife Elaine, two sons Russell (Micky) Johnson of Kingsford and Nick (Dana) Johnson of Holt, MI, one step daughter Darcy Kowalkowski of Niagara, sixteen grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by a son Jeffery and a step daughter Wendy Bouche.

Roy will be missed by his morning buddies at Burger King and his dogs Daisy and Ginger.

A memorial service is being planned for a later date. Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

Condolences to the family of Roy G. Johnson may be expressed online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home with the funeral arrangements.

“ I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Johnson but have known his son Nick for many years. He often told stories of his dad and there seemed to be much love and respect in each one. He was obviously a special man who was dear to many. Prayers go out to the Johnson family and friends from me and my family.
