"Roy Sovey"

IRON MOUNTAIN - Roy C. Sovey, 93, of 601 Wells St., Iron Mountain, died Tuesday, Aug. 12, 2003, at the VA Medical Center in Iron Mountain.

Roy was born March 28, 1910, in Gladstone, son of the late Joseph and Christine (Neilson) Sovey. He married the former Eleanor Quadrani on May 3, 1941, at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Iron Mountain. Roy was a veteran of World War II and served in the United States Coast Guard for three years during the European and Pacific Theatre of Operations. He worked 30 years before retiring from Kimberly-Clark (Niagara of Wisconsin). Following his retirement, Roy worked for two years as the custodian for the Dickinson Area Catholic School in Iron Mountain. Roy was a member of the St. Mary and St. Joseph Catholic Church and was a former member of the Iron Mountain Elks Lodge. He enjoyed fishing, playing cards, and bowling.

He is survived by his wife, Eleanor; his daughter, Donna Sovey of Kingsford; two grandchildren, Trisha (Robert) Navaroli of Clinton Township, lower Michigan and Brian Chrisman of San Francisco, Calif.; two great-grandchildren Dean and Mary Navaroli; and many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be held from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Saturday at the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home in Iron Mountain. Memorial services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home. Deacon Donald Christy will officiate. Burial will be in Cemetery Park.

“ To Mrs. Sovey and Family:

*I just read Mr. Sovey's obituary on the funeral home's website and want to express my sympathy. I grew up across the alley from you folks at 600 West Fleshiem Street. I graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1971 and have lived in Baraga since 1986. Watch for my father, Paul Aho's obituary; he died on January 19, 2004. With good memories of our conversations across the alley fences
...Robert Aho*
