“ Dearest Mrs. Steinke, One never appreciates at a young age the priceless things in front of them. You and Mr. Steinke were a very big impact in my life as I went through the GAHS years. I will always cherish running into the two of you at Econo Foods as time went on. The conversations were great and still inspiring. Hoping that peace and love continue to flow your way as you heal from your loss and the Grace of God remains to protect you and yours. Much love to you and your family today especially. “ Condolences to the Steinke family. I was in some of Roy's first shop classes at GHS. As a teenager, I didn't appreciate what I was learning at the time. Teenagers rarely do. Over the years, the lessons and memories come back to you as you are sanding, cutting, planing or finishing. Thanks Roy. You got me through a lot of projects over the years.

“ Janie, so sorry to hear of Roys passing. He and I went back a long way. We started hanging out in the late 50’s and continued thru the mid 60’s while we were growing up in Ford Addition. I used to help him with his IM News paper route and even took over delivery when he would go on family vacations. We used to love it when his older brother, Chuck, would take us for a ride in his “61” Corvair Monza. We thought we were so cool. I lost touch through the years but managed to hear that he was teaching in Wisconsin and that you two had tied the knot. The fact that I also had gotten to know you in the late 60’s I thought you two were a great match and judging from your time together I was right. I would see Roy at Econo on my occasional family visits to Kingsford and we always had a few minutes to reminisce about the old days. I know there’s a huge hole in your life right now but I’m sure the love of your family and friends will see you through. Take care and God Bless. Jeff Franson

“ Dear Mrs. Steinke,
Please know that both you and Mr. Steinke were some of the most amazing teachers anyone could ask for. I hold so many memories from your art class and his wood shop. Both of you taught me so much more than how to make art or something out of wood, although all of those skills have come in handy. I'm struggling to find the words to express how much both of you meant to me, but especially him. He always had a warm and welcoming demeanor and could keep his patience with the best of them. I'm so sorry for your loss. He passed away of my 40th birthday followed 2 days later by the passing of my mother in law. I don't know that a year will pass when I won't think back on the past week with sadness in my heart for losing two wonderful people so close to one another. Hugs to you.

Sincerely,
Jen (Danielczak) Raymond
