

Rudolph Marketto

February 3, 2008

IRON MOUNTAIN - Rudolph "Rudy" Marketto, 84, of 1300 Michigan Ave. in Iron Mountain, died Sunday, Feb. 3, 2008, at his home.

Rudy was born March 18, 1923, in Crystal Falls, son of the late Archie and Mary (Brollo) Marketto. He served during World War II as a radar operator with the United States Army Air Corp.

On Aug. 21, 1948, he married the former Phyllis Recla. Rudy worked for the Northrange Mining Co. in Amasa for several years and following their closure moved to California where he worked for the Cal/Am Water Co. for 25 years. He retired in 1985 and returned to this area in 1986. Rudy was a member of American Martyrs Church and the Crystal Falls Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He enjoyed traveling, hunting, fishing and spending time in the woods. Rudy was the Upper Peninsula archery champion for three years. He was an avid Green Bay Packer fan and enjoyed all sports and sporting events.

He is survived by his wife, Phyllis; his son, Scott Marketto of Negaunee; brothers and sisters-in-law, Denise Recla of Quinnesec, Daniel (Eileen) Cwik of Crystal Falls, June Recla of Green Bay, Wis., Marjorie Marketto of California and Claudia Marketto of Florida; and many nieces and nephews.

Rudy was preceded in death by two brothers, John Marketto and Louis Marketto and a sister, Jerri Spinato-Ganung.

Visitation will be from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. Tuesday at American Martyrs Church in Kingsford.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Tuesday at the church. Fr. Joseph Gouin will offer the Mass of the Christian Burial.

Burial will be in the Crystal Falls Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial will be established in his memory.
