We confess to surprise that he left so quickly, and feel it is just like him want to spare you, his dearly loved family. We grieve his loss with you and know without a doubt that our Lord will be your protector and guide in the days ahead.

“ Russ, a man with an open heart willing to love those God placed in his life. The emptiness will take a long time to fill. There are many memories shared with Russ. I remember Lake Ellen with Jon Edlund, Amby Swointek, Paul Jaedicki, Russ & myself. It was an interesting time. Russ was also generous not only with his time but with the things God gave him. A few years back he loaned me his four wheeler to get some cedar out of the woods. Last summer he loaned me his truck, trailer & four wheeler to spread horse manure on the pastures where we keep our horses. Russ knew the grace of God which he shared with others. My wife & I will miss him.

“ Joyce, and family,
Russ was a wonderful man and will be missed. We shared many hugs and prayers over the last few years. They will not be forgotten. The most treasured memories for both of us were the many Christmas (office) parties. Darrel and I were sure to try to sit next to you and Russ. We had some great conversations. Darrel has said that that's the way he will always remember Russ, with an upbeat passion for his life. He fought a great fight Joyce, and we will surely miss him. May God give you and your family strength and direction during this time. I will always be here, call if you need.. Love you..

“ Russ and I both worked at the Red Owl Supermarket in Iron Mountain during 1969-72, and I have good memories of Russ from that time. May God comfort you now with the sure hope of the resurrection that we have in Christ our Lord.

“ Our condolences to Joyce and the family. Dave had the opportunity to personally meet a number of you during a motorcycle trip to the UP with Jerry. Dave was treated with great hospitality; he'll always remember your grace, kindness and goodness. Dave also noted that Russ and Dave's brother, Jake, shared the same birthday. God's blessings to you during this most difficult of times. "And in this fellowship, we enjoy the eternal life He promised us." 1 John 2:25.

“ Dear family....

Star and I only know Russ through his brother-in-law Jerry, and wife Jan. But, as members of the same small group at church, we care about each other, and the grief each other must bear at times. We thank our Lord for the promise of an eternity with HIm. This promise is fulfilled in Russ' life right now. We... must wait. However, that does not do away with the sorrow and sense of loss to family and loved ones. May God bless each of you, and may your precious memories with Russ sustain you during the days ahead.

Our love to each of you.

“ We send our love and compassion to you at this time of Russ' passing. Our confidence in the future is based firmly on the fact of what God has done for us in Christ. Because Christ is alive, we need not despair, no matter what our situation may be. For if we die with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him. May God grant you His peace.

“ Dear Joyce, Christina, Steve, Jack, & Brooke, Andy, Heidi, & Greta, & all those that loved Russ as we did -- there are no words to express the loss of such a wonderful man. Russ was one of the kindest men we ever met. When we started at the Chapel, he was the one who went out of his way to include us and be sure we felt welcome -- we know he did this for many people. He had such a great impact on us. He & you, Joyce, mentored us spiritually and opened your home to anyone who wanted to attend the couples' Bilbe Study as well as counseling us and many others on financial affairs. He was indeed generous with the gifts and talents God blessed him with. We learned a great deal from both of you and the times we spent in your home. He was a family man who loved God and his wife, children, and grandchildren above everything and he didn't just talk it, he "walked it". He was such a fine example of a man loving his wife. He made no secret of his love for his wife -- and he demonstrated time and again by actions rather than just words (though we were witness to his many times of complimenting her and speaking of his love for her). He demonstrated his love when he took Ella into the home and helped care for her those years before she went to the nursing home. He was steadfast in his love and devotion when Andy had his accident. He was realistic and honest about stressful situations but he never faltered in his trust of our Lord. He was so brave and positive throughout his fight with cancer; such an inspiration and testimony to us and so many others! We were so very blessed to call him friend and will always keep him in our hearts with fond memories, love, and have become better human beings because of the things he taught us and the way he loved us. We share so deeply in your loss and if there is anything we can do, please let us know. May God keep you all in His loving arms in these difficult days ahead.
