Ruth Kary

KINGSFORD - Ruth M. Kary, 80, of Kingsford died Saturday, Jan. 4, 2003. She was born March 30, 1922, in Chicago, where she grew up. Ruth went to business college and studied music at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, before she married the Rev. Charles C. Kary in 1944. She was a secretary at Trinity United Methodist Church in Iron Mountain until she retired a few years ago. She was also the organist at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Iron Mountain for many years. Music and nature were two of her passions. Ruth enjoyed teaching piano and organ. Until recently, she conducted wildflowers classes and enjoyed introducing many people to the natural beauties of the Upper Peninsula.

Mrs. Kary was preceded in death by her husband, Charles, in 1994.

She is survived by her children, Timothy (Jean), Daniel (Michelle Mazur), Mark and Rebecca; her grandchildren, Wendy Tinh (Vu), Marcia, Christopher, Gabrielle, Christina, Nicole (Jason), Daniel, and Andrew, and her great-grandchildren, Elijah, Galen, Chendra and Nathaniel. She is also survived by brothers, Paul Myers, John Myers (Joan), and Daniel Myers, and sisters, Eunice Jones (Cecil) and Dorcas De, as well as many nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by her elder brother, Stephen Myers in 2000. Visitation will be from 5 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain. Funeral services were held Sunday, Jan. 5, at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church with Fr. Charles Piper officiating.
