“ How very sorry I am to read of Shari's passing and I express my deep and sincere sympathy to her family, the Wallners and including the Gingrass brothers and sisters. Shari was always a fun and acommodating person to work with whenever I needed something from Standard Printing. Her humor was catchy even when she gave me a sort of hard time, jokingly, a Gingrass trait over these many years. She will be missed by many of us who had the pleasure of talking and purchasing from her. God's love be with each of the Gingras', her husband, and children. Keep the happy memories one day at a time as Shari would want for you. My prayers for all in the days ahead.
