“ *Bob and Family,
So sorry to hear of your moms passing it is never easy. I am sure her and your dad are out taking a walk together again. They were both very kind. They were a part of my memories growing up . You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers . God Bless*

“ *Dear Bob and Family,
I was so sad to see that Shirley had passed away. She was such a wonderful woman and I have many good memories of her. My thoughts took me back to when I was in high school and I worked with her at J.C. Penney. Along with Kim Goodchild, Lori Unger, Tina Frances, Scott Ceello, Betty Pukal, Betty Welty and an older woman Mary. We had such a good time working with her plus all the times I talked with her and your dad at our high school basketball games. Later when Mike and I moved back to Iron Mountain, we would see them all the time walking on the west side almost every day and we talked all the time. After your dad passed and she moved, we missed seeing them in the neighborhood.*

Keep all her wonderful memories close to you. She was a special lady and she will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

*Love,
Lori and Mike Mellon*
