Susan also enjoyed taking side-by-side rides with her husband, snowmobiling, and spending time at her family's lake cottage "Lily's Pad." Her number one priority was family, and she loved nothing more than spending time with them.

“ My sympathy to Susie's large and loving family, particularly her brother, Dan. whom I know best. I still remember her laugh, smile, and twinkling eyes from all those years ago at school together in Pembine. Susie left us too early. But what a wonderful legacy she built while she was with us! One that will always be remembered by all the lives she touched.

“ I was so saddened to see of my friend Sues passing. I met her when I moved to Pembine in 1985. Such a wonderful lady, with a beautiful sense of humor and awesome laugh. We had so much fun laughing. I became friends with her mother Lily also. Sue was a really kind, giving, gentle woman. Please know that I Thank You for what you did for me and Sue and I truly appreciate your friendship.....Love you my friend.....Margo. <3
