

Susan Lee Ruohomaki

April 26, 1948 - April 15, 2026

Susan Lee (Cox) Ruohomaki, 77, of Iron Mountain was called home on Wednesday, April 15, 2026, with her family at her side following a courageous 14 month battle with cancer.

Susan was born on April 26, 1948, to parents Lloyd and Helen Cox. She was the eldest of 4 children and grew up in National Mine, MI, where she graduated as the salutatorian of her class. She married Roy Ruohomaki on June 3, 1967, and they enjoyed 58 years together. Susan was the mother of two children.

Susan graduated from Northern Michigan University summa cum laude with a degree in teaching with majors in math and science. She worked for many years as a substitute teacher in the local schools before getting a permanent job as a 6th grade teacher at Kingsford Middle School where she taught for 28 years until her retirement. She enjoyed working with the gifted and talented cluster and was the coach for Odyssey of the Mind competitions. She received a Golden Apple teaching award for excellence in teaching and was a member of the Michigan math standards board.

Susan was a member of the Maranatha Assembly of God Church in Kingsford and volunteered at Maranatha Messengers, which distributes food and clothing to those in need. She was a member of the foreign missions board, and she and Roy traveled to Paraguay on a missions trip. They also enjoyed riding motorcycles and visited most of the states and some of Canada on bike trips.

After retirement, they divided their time between Iron Mountain and Arizona. In Arizona she attended Ascend Church Queen Creek, and she and Roy became volunteers for the CASA program, which provides court advocates for foster children. So much for a quiet retirement.

Susan is survived by her husband of 58 years, Roy; siblings Victor (Carol), Sharon (Jon), and Fred (Lynn); a sister-in-law, Louise (Chuck); her two children, Todd (Kerri) and Lisa; four grandchildren, Brittany (Steven), Jamin, Janelle (Grant), Jakob (Taylor); and four great-grandchildren, Nikko and Xander, Ava and Alaina. She will also be missed by her two rescue dogs Buddy and Maggie.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lloyd and Helen Cox, and her parents-in-law, Waino and Helen Ruohomaki.

Visitation will be at the Maranatha Assembly of God Church, 920 S. Carpenter Ave., from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 3, 2026, with Rev. David Wilton officiating the funeral service at 6:00 p.m.

Jeremiah 29:11

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Susan Lee (Cox) Ruohomaki online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The family has entrusted the Erickson-Rochon & Nash Funeral Home of Iron Mountain with the arrangements.

“ Roy and family, May our ever loving God surround you with love, sustain you through all the difficult times ahead and bring peace to your hearts. Susie was one of the nicest people I have ever known. You may not remember, but I made your wedding cake back in 67. So we knew each other a long time. She has been on my daily prayer list ever since I heard from Sharon about her major fight with cancer. My deepest sympathy to you - Sharon Schrandt

“ Sue was my sixth grade teacher, and one of the best ones I ever had. I will never forget the night she and her husband hosted the class to see Jupiter's moons through a telescope in their yard. She was an inspiration to many and will be dearly missed.

“ Sue was my teacher, and my friend. She has been a positive influence in my life since the first day I walked into her classroom all those years ago. Her kindness and ability to inspire others to push themselves gave me the courage to follow my dreams and fight for them. I will miss her dearly, and she will always carry a place in my heart. My condolences to Roy and Sue's family.

“ Sue was an inspiration to me. She always encouraged me. Someone who was a role model. Today my heart is hurting as I remember Sue who passed away after her battle with cancer. 💔 She was a phenomenal teacher at Kingsford High School, leaving a lasting impact on countless students, and after retirement she continued serving faithfully as a volunteer with Maranatha Messengers for many years. Her life was a beautiful example of selflessness, generosity, and faith in action. Sue and Roy supported me in ways I will never forget—through mission trips, through college, and through seasons when encouragement meant everything. Their kindness, prayers, and belief in me helped shape who I am today. While my heart aches, I hold onto the promise that this is not goodbye forever. One day, we will be together again. Until then, I am so grateful for the gift of knowing Sue and for the legacy of love and service she leaves behind. Rest in peace, sweet Sue. You will always be remembered. 💕💕

Roy and Family, just heard about Sue's passing today. Was very surprised and saddened at the same time. Remembering you and Sue when you were young and your kids were small. Always enjoyed our times of fellowship in Ishpeming and then you moved to Iron Mtn. But we had contact through the years. Always enjoyed your company. Sue had an extraordinary life in education. I was thinking she is having a reunion with the loved ones who have gone before as well as seeing her Savior whom she has served all her life. We will be praying for you and your family.
