“ Sally- So sorry to hear the loss of Shine, wow where does a guy begin? What a positive and fun loving guy that influenced my love of music in a big way. To have the opportunity to play with him for several years was a highlight of my musical career. When we played together and a request came in all Shine would sad is "Sure we can do that one" he then would look over his shoulder to me on the drums and wink with that charming smile!!! So many great memories. He is singing in heaven right now!!! He will be missed, I know if all goes well and we meet him in heaven some day you can expect a "Hey Buddy" I look forward to that reunion. Love you Shine and thank you for your influence in my life!!

“ I knew Shine from back in our early musical days, and also knew both Shine and Sally from our decades of working together in the one and only Niagara Paper Mill. If you ever had a bad day, and needed some help getting out of it, you just simply needed to run into these two, and your day brightened in a flash. Bless you Shine. Honored to call you friend. And hugs to you Sal. Tom
