“ Janice,

Mary Ann and all will miss Terry even his great poem writing that brought a smile to everyone's faces. I know Mary Ann had a series of poem's Terry had given her to read and we did read everyone of them and how good they all were. Very heart warming and sometimes inspirational poems brought smiles or joyful tears to those that read them.

VISITING HIM WALKING AROUND THE MALL

We would go to Kingsford Mall and sure enough would run into Terry walking around either inside or outside. He always would take the time to stop and talk to everyone and anyone. I know the community enjoyed his story telling, picture taking and just plain talk, so he will be surely missed by all.

Again, Linda Granquist sent us the article just the other day and we are also so sorry to find out David passed away. Loosing touch (OUT OF STATE-MICHIGAN) but not out of our hearts and minds, we to will surely miss both of them. God bless you and remember, both David and Terry are in heaven now with their mom's and dad's still watching over you.

MAY GOD BLESS YOU JANICE AND WE WILL SAY A PRAY FOR ALL TODAY.

LOVE, THE WEBB's

PS. A POEM DEAR TO EVERYONE'S HEARTS ALWAYS REMINDED ME OF TERRY AND HIS BELIEVES AND IT WAS, "FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND." I can picture him with a big smile on his face as he is in heaven looking down on us not suffering anymore.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Terry. We met on Wunderground and became email friends. He will always be Railwalker(RW)to me and and will always think of myself as Hobo Princess (HP), the nickname he gave me because I liked to take photos of trains.:) When my husband had a colostomy last spring and then went through chemo Terry was always emailing me photos of flowers to cheer me up. He was a special person and will be in my heart forever.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Terry's passing. I graduated from Kingsford in 1998 and will always remember Terry calling me "Sis-Boom-Bah" as he took pictures of us cheerleading. Appropriately, he called my mom "Sis-Boom-Bah-Ma" and my father was always "Sis-Boom-Bah-Pa." I recently saw him in Walmart and after all these years, I was greeted with "Sis-Boom-Bah, how ya doing?" His smile and sense of humor will be greatly missed by many!

“ Jan, The words just won't come as to how sorry I am that Terry is no longer with us. However, I also know that his pain is over and he is having a glorious reunion with his parents and brother. We will all see him again and revel in his company. When I started at the DN six years ago, he was one of the very first to be-friend me at the various sporting events that I covered. Not only was he a brilliant photographer, capturing the very essence of everything he covered, he also treated me as a treasured friend - which he was. Our prayers are with you and we will always carry our precious memories with us.

“ Jan, I worked with Terry for a few years and enjoyed his jokes and stories. He always had a kind word and compliment for everyone. I would see him in the stores after he quit working, the miles that man would put on walking, be it cold or hot out. I am the proud owner of a couple of his poems. He also sent some poems to my daughter at college, as well as some encouraging words during her transition into college life. We will miss seeing he and talking to him. I am sure he up in Heaven riding Gods special train and taking beautiful pictures. Hope they have plenty of paper for him to write his poems on! Please take care of yourself and Terry's bird.

“ I am very sorry to hear about your loss. I know that you do not know me, but I have known Terry since I was a baby. My father and him played baseball together and I use to always hear the stories from Terry when he was at the high school sporting events. I graduated from Kingsford in 2002 and from the first day I met Terry I was told to call him the "ole knuckler" from his baseball pitching days. He will be missed.

“ Jan, I am so sorry to hear of Terry's passing. As I sat tonight and read Burt's article about Terry, I remembered all the times he stopped at my desk, on his way out of The Daily News, with a new poem or two to share or some sort of story, he always had something and I don't believe he ever quit smiling. The last time I saw him he was in Walmart walking around and told me he couldn't wait to shoot some pictures, with both boys & girls BB this year he would have been in his glory! Terry is now in a better place looking down on you and I know he only wants happy tears. With my deepest sympathies for the loss of a great man.

“ Jan: Blessings to you and your family. Terry was such a great guy - always that big smile and a story or two to share. May God comfort you in the days to come; it isn't easy. It's been 2 years since Donald passed and I still have some rough days. Take care and maybe I'll see you when I come to Iron Mountain.

“ Dear Jan,
I was so sad to hear that Terry was sick. Although I haven't seen him in many years I have thought of you both often. My memories of Terry, Darcie and my brothers and I playing at Grandma Fisher's are still vivid in my mind. Terry and his mom were both accomplished writers and I have always enjoyed reading their poems. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless
