“ Dear Mary Ellen and Joe,
Thank you for sharing Therese's life with us on Caring Bridge posts. I have been praying for Therese and your family and hope for you all to feel Our Lord and our Blessed Mother's consolation during this sad time of Therese's passing. You have given us all a beautiful glimpse of heaven as you prepared a saint as she rested awhile with your generous family on its doorsteps.
Bless you all,
Cindy Leonard

“ To the Dougoveto, Muir, Oller, Erickson, and Conduit Families,

Our hearts and prayers are with you as we think of Gods blessing he gave us through Therese and your love. During her short time here on Earth she has made a big impact on so many. There is a new fighter in heaven praying for your every intention, may you find comfort in that. God Bless Therese and all of your family.

“ Mary Ellen, Joe and boys,

Thank you for sharing Therese's love and life with us since you knew you were expecting her! You taught us all so much in grace and surrender after you found out her diagnosis. It was a year full of immense suffering, growth, love and treasuring every moment you had with Therese.

Mary Ellen, your Caring Bridge updates were so helpful and made us feel like we got to know and love Therese right along with you each day. I loved seeing her cute outfits. She never made it past size 3 month clothes, but she gave us lessons and new wisdom that no adult could ever pass along. We love you so much and ache for the new "normal" you'll have to adapt to without cords, kitchen timers, monitoring... I know you will miss her in countless ways.
