“ I haven't thought about Tommy in a very long time. He was my best friend growing up on Cass Ave in Kingsford during my younger years before our family moved away. We played together often, everything that kids do. His parents were wonderful people, and I had more PBJ's than I can remember from Mrs. Pasten, such a dear sweet lady and wonderful Mother. It certainly saddens me to see Tommy gone, but I know that he has become new and whole through Jesus and is rejoicing in His kingdom. I look forward to seeing him again one day. What a great friend and such a good guy.

“ My son, Paul, enjoyed Tom's friendship when they were in Boy Scouts and Special Olympics. Tom always had a ready smile and great sense of humor. Paul and I hadn't seen Tom for awhile and then a year or two ago, we saw Tom at Escanaba basketball games. Paul was so happy to see Tom. Hugs all around. So happy to have that final memory of Tom. Prayers for your family. Joan and Paul Luhtanen
