“ Tim and I are second cousins and our families would get together several times a year especially in the summer camping or visiting each other's homes. Timmy was always more than ready to play a little mischief with whomever was willing which was just about any of us because he was very convincing. As we got older and wiser (ha) we would meet at the Woodward Bar "for a few" and catch up on life and end up at Auntie JoAnn's playing cards. My handsome always smiling cuz I'll miss you but know there's a party going on up there with the rest of the family who are gone.

For over 70 years, Tim has been a part of my life. From the time we were little playing under the street lights in East Kingsford, walking the tracks to the railroad bridge, doing the things you do growing up at camp and generally spending time doing nothing. His smile, sly looks, quick wit were always on display. He always had time to help a friend no matter what. He raised a great group of family and friends and was very proud of their accomplishments. A dedicated Packers fan that would debate every trade, draft pick, and game at the drop of a hat. Tim and Sandy built a life together, starting with very little and retiring in a beautiful spot by Lake Antoine. He lived a full life and will be missed by many. I count myself lucky to have had the time we had.

“ The first summer I turned 18, my grandad took me to the Casino. I wasn't much of a Gambler but I knew the Casino was one of his favorite places to go so I joined him one day when all the yard work was done and there was time to "putz around". We stopped for lunch at Wildwood Restaurant in Hermansville and got the biggest and fluffiest pancakes I've ever had, the we headed off to the Island Resort and Casino. We sat down at the bar and my grandad order us two beer and juices and slid me a 100 dollar bill to play on. I went out on my own and lost half of my money on one machine! I felt awful for wasting so much money but my grandad just laughed. He assured me that I was playing all the wrong games, so he spent the rest of our trip showing me how to gamble on all his favorite machines. We both loved the Zodiac Lantern Rabbit Games which he nicknamed "the bunnies". We somehow hit a dozen jackpots and free spins. By the end of the day we walked out with almost 500 dollars. It was my first Casino trip, and still my most successful to this day. All thanks to my Grandad and his bunnies!
