My sympathy to you all for the loss of your father. He had a very long and fruitful life. He shares a very interesting first name with my father Valentine (Ting) Moroni.

“ Dear Richtig family, My deepest sympathy in the loss of your father. When I was a little boy, Tinkala was Santa Claus for our family. He was a longtime friend of my dad, Joe Schinderle.

“ Dearest Pat and children, Our deepest sympathy goes out to all of you with the loss of your hubby and dad. I would have come up to the funeral but I recently had an ankle fusion and am still on crutches (and am not suppose to be driving). 3 weeks after my surgery Monica fell in the garage-cracked her ankle in 2 places and SHE TOO is now on crutches.
We may not be there in person BUT we will certainly lift you all up in spirit and prayer. "Tink" was quite the Santa Claus WAY WAY back in my childhood and I still remember the time that I first knew something was "fishy" when I saw him "raise " up his beard and take a sip of Bosch Beer. GREAT many memories from years ago!!
He'll be able to "tip" one or two now with the rest of the deceased
"NORT SIDERS". God's love and blessings to you all!!!!
