

Valerie Freeman

January 16, 2008

QUINNESEC - Valorie Ann Freeman, 69, of Quinnesec, died Wednesday, Jan. 16, 2008, at her home in Quinnesec.

She was born June 23, 1938, in Norway, daughter of the late Richard and Marjorie (Eller) Trecartin. She was a lifelong resident of this area.

Valorie had an associate degree from Bay College in early childhood development and a degree in cosmetology from Northern Michigan University. She had worked at various beauty salons in the area.

Valorie loved flowers and gardening, and enjoyed watching the birds. Her grandchildren were the center of her life.

She is survived by three sons, John (Sue) Carlson of Sagola, Jim (Mary) Carlson of Iron Mountain, and David (Sarah) Freeman of Kingsford; one brother, Richard (Mary) Trecartin of Iron Mountain; one sister, Lois Schomer of Aurora, Wis.; six grandchildren, Jodi Carlson, Nick Carlson (Stephanie Gentile), Mark Carlson, and Jacob, Benjamin and James Freeman; her lifelong friend, Arlene and special friends, Chris and Dawn.

She was preceded in death by an infant daughter and a brother-in-law, Herman Schomer.

Friends may call from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday at the Kingsford Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday at the funeral home. Rev. Michael March will officiate.

Burial will be in the Quinnesec Cemetery.

Condolences may be expressed to the family of Valorie A. Freeman online at www.ernashfuneralhomes.com.

The funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the Erickson-Rochon and Nash Kingsford Funeral Home of Iron Mountain.

“ Dear Trecartin Family,
I'll always remember the fun we had as best 'buds' back in high school. Had a ball at your wedding too, Lois. I've been in AZ for 30 years, but I still have all the good memories, seems like yesterday. Turn all the sadness you feel now and enjoy all her kids & gr-kids and life she had.
Sincere sympathy,
Karen Verley Frazier
