“ Laura and family,

I'm so sorry for the loss of your mother or grandmother. I feel I am part of your family even though I'm back here in Cary, NC. I feel so blessed having known your mom. I remember first the times both of your parents would visit. I always thought your dad was so much like mine. Then it was just the visits with your mom. I always enjoyed talking to her out on the driveway. She usually was working on some project. She was such a kind caring person. I admired as she aged how together and strong she was. Even though we will grieve her loss, she now is happy, well, and most of all walking with your dad.

*Love you, Rhonda Hoffman
